A Note to Our Readers

We have arrived! San Benito County's new Aging & Disability Resource Connection (ADRC) is both a service hub and a network of committed community organizations assisting older adults, individuals living with disability, and caregivers. We identify personal and community resources, provide service enrollment assistance, aid in navigating complex public benefit systems, and access information on dozens of non-profit community-based service partners. ADRCs act as a "No Wrong Door" system, enabling people of all ages, incomes, and abilities to connect with our partner organizations and access a wide array of Long-Term Services and Support options in our community.

We hope you will call toll-free (888-637-6757), email (info@sanbenitoADRC.org), or visit our office at 300 West Street in downtown Hollister. We are located within the Parks & Recreation Building/Community Center with some of our partners: Jovenes de Antaño, Del Mar Caregiver Resource Center, Senior Citizens Legal Services, and Health Insurance Counseling & Advocacy Program (HICAP). Together, we are tasked with meeting real needs and making real differences in the lives of fellow residents whom we are privileged to serve and learn from.

This directory was prepared by Seniors Council of Santa Cruz and San Benito Counties, a non-profit senior community resource agency that operates the Area Agency on Aging (AAA), Aging & Disability Resource Connection (ADRC)/No Wrong Door, Foster Grandparent/Senior Companion Program, Project SCOUT, and Companion For Life. This guide was produced with funds provided by the California Department of Aging and the Aging & Disability Resource Connection (ADRC) of San Benito County.

Note that a listing does not constitute a recommendation of either an agency or its service(s) and Seniors Council shall not be held liable for any damages or injury caused therein. Due to the changing nature of the information, reproduction is limited to Seniors Council. Structural content provided by Senior Resource Network of Santa Cruz County.

Please email us info@sanbenitoADRC.org with any content modifications so we can continue to improve these listings for regular reprintings. For further information and a downloadable PDF of this directory, please visit www.SanBenitoADRC.org.

Thank you! We hope you find this directory useful.

Equipment & Rentals

Some individuals use assistive technology in order to remain living independently. This includes devices which improve access to the environment (ramps, Braille signs, automatic door openers) and aids for daily living (adapted utensils and modified bathrooms). Assistive technology also refers to devices which assist communication (hearing aids, closed captioning, modifications to computers, visual aids) and equipment which improves mobility (wheelchairs). For more information, visit Temple University's Institute on Disabilities at www.techowipa.org.

MEDICARE

Medicare has different programs available to persons with disabilities and seniors in need of mobility assistive devices. Generally, Medicare Part B covers mobility equipment upon doctor approval. Typically, the program will only reimburse 80% of the cost of acquiring a mobility scooter, so you may have to contact your local Medicaid office (ask for the "Medicare Savings Program") or a Medicare supplemental policy to provide the remaining 20% cost.
